

After the disappointing American media white-out of the Iraq war, I can't think of anything more destructive to free speech than than the monopoly ownership of media outlets. This mustn't be allowed to happen!